

PACIFIC COUNTY COURTHOUSE
National Historic Site

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A VALUABLE SHORT COURSE (AT NO COST TO YOU)

The City of Long Beach and Pacific County invite you to an evening of learning.

Who:	Citizens, Decision-makers
What:	A Short Course on Local Planning
Why:	To get a basic understanding of land use planning
Where:	Pacific County new Administration Building 7013 Sandridge Road, Long Beach
When:	Thursday, November 5 th , 6:30 to 9:30 PM

Have you ever wondered how land use decisions are made? This short course will cover the following:

- Legal and practical objectives of planning
- Citizen participation and the public process
- Washington's Growth Management and Shoreline Management Acts
- Constitutional rights and responsibilities
- Development tools and techniques
- Planning and environmental legislation
- County and Tribal planning issues
- Annexations

There will be three outstanding teachers/speakers. Normally, this type of education would cost a substantial amount per pupil. However, the Washington Department of Commerce, Washington Cities Insurance Authority, and the Planning Association of Washington have combined resources to provide speakers for this event at no cost to you.

Refreshments will be available.
